On the best paper trail

"What was that brilliant idea last week? Did anybody make a note of that? Would love to have a look at that again."

These are all the common things people say after an eventful meeting where great ideas or suggestions have been flying around during any meeting. And we at Neuland are no different. So, we took this challenge and created the new IdeaBoard. A board that takes up no floor space, has loads of paper on the go, and will capture all of your group's work for now and for later. This is the key advantage an IdeaBoard has over a whiteboard, because with a whiteboard once the meeting is over so is your idea. Please browse through our 2013 catalogue and we hope you enjoy our latest selection of new products!

Refill-System

Fill up and Save!

The easy-to-use optimized Neuland Refill System not only ensures your markers go the distance, but it also means being cost-efficient and eco-friendly!

3 Markers, 1 Refill System:

Refill the N<sup>o</sup>One, BigOne, and fineOne!

new

Refilling just got easier! The new stainless steel refill station now provides you with the perfect spot to refill & rest your markers.

This handy organizer holds up to 4 BigOnes, 5 N<sup>o</sup>Ones, and 5 fineOnes.

Stainless steel with a powder-coated base

2 Empty Markers, transparent

Seeing is believing! The empty transparent marker allows you to see exactly what is happening during the refill process making it ideal for demonstration purposes. Available in the N<sup>o</sup>One and BigOne sizes.

6 easy refill steps!

Turn the closed bottle on its head, squeeze the refill bulb once (!) then release!

Remove the filling unit and carefully wipe off all ink that is on the injection needle. Be careful not to apply any pressure to the round bulb!

Important! Remove the marker's cap. Insert the injection needle until it inserts into the filter membrane at the colored end of the marker.

Squeeze the bulb very slowly (!) and empty this into the compensation chamber of the marker.

Remove the filling unit without touching the round bulb and screw it back onto the fill bottle.

Wipe the base of the marker if some ink has spilled.

Special fineOne Refill Instructions:

To ensure your fineOnes are properly refilled; always follow the instructions. Firstly, unscrew the marker tip, and then with the ink refill bottle head filled with only a 1/3 of ink; slowly drip in – all done!

Pastel Revolution!

Many artists use chalk pastels to create wonderful pieces of art. However, for those new to using chalk pastels, they can be intimidating...until now. A new type of Pastel Chalk from the US is emerging with its fresh take on this classic favorite that traditional and graphic artists alike will be swooning over. The PanPastel® Chalks are easier to work with than standard chalks because of its wonderful smooth and silky texture all encased in convenient "pan" pots.

We put the innovative pastel product to the test here at our Neuland office, and we were thrilled with the results! The soft colors apply cleanly and do not lose their vibrancy of color during application; whilst creating only a minimal amount of the usual dust associated with using chalks.

How does the color get out of the pan and onto the paper?

The creators of PanPastel® also designed effective tools for the best and varied application of its product. Their wide assortment of applicators will have everyone satisfied for choice. From large soft sponges for covering bigger surface areas, to small sponges with detailed contours or palette knife-like tools for effective precision work.

A few efficient strokes are enough to pick up a good amount of color on your applicator as the quality of the product begins to shine through. You will immediately recognize the intensity of the pigment and richness of the texture. The vibrant PanPastel® colors are quite striking and up to 4 times more economical than conventional chalks. Creating large homogenous areas of color will be as easy as creating fine lines.

new

Can I work with both PanPastel® and with Neuland markers?

Absolutely! We have selected 20 colors from our marker assortment to coordinate perfectly with the 20 PanPastel® color range. We also went one step further and created a new Vario-One® Panel for convenient simple transportation of the PanPastel®, along with its applicators. Our modular Novario Training Cases can also accommodate this new product line.

Further information about PanPastel, instructions, user tips and videos can be found on the Internet at: www.neuland.com

Stick-It

Stick-It Workshop Cards

The popular self-adhesive cards use the same strong 130 g/m<sup>2</sup> of 100% recycled paper as our Pin-its, but this format allows for greater flexibility. The Neuland Stick-It Cards can be stuck to walls, windows, whiteboards, and on paper whilst allowing continuous repositioning for clustering and other dynamic group activities.

bikablo® – there's a meaning behind every picture. Here they are!

1 bikablo® 1

Visual Dictionary

The bikablo is your ticket into the world of visualization! Martin Haussmann is an experienced illustrator and visual facilitator from the Kommunikationsslotsen organization who has assembled and created the 131-pages of brilliant picture-symbols into a unique reference book of visual language. The bikablo is made to enhance the work of professional Trainers, Facilitators and Consultants. With this key reference dictionary of visual language you will get to the heart of every issue – even if it's complex. All the drawings were purposely made easy, so that even the novice drawer would be confident that they can easily copy the ideas, or trace and vary the pictures onto a Pinboard or FlipChart.

bikablo visual facilitating trainings

Learning visual facilitating with the bikablo training program.

Visual Facilitating means visualizing knowledge and dialogs using hand-drawn graphics.

The Kommunikationslotsens' drawing technique bikablo® offers anyone who want to work in co-operation with others, plan, or sustainably learn an introduction to the world of visual language on flipcharts and pin boards. In our training at the Neuland Facilitators' Training Camp in Eichenzell (near Fulda, Germany), you will learn the basic essentials and methods for Visual Facilitating – whether you are skilled at drawing or not! Our aim: You should have so much fun and learn so much that you can use what you have learnt on the next day – and employ Visual Facilitating to make your meetings, coaching, training, and processes more lively, emotional, and efficient.

The Kommunikationslotsens' bikablo® trainer team

Level 1 – the two-day basic course:

- 1.1 – Visual Facilitating for beginners:
The basic course for »Absolute Beginners«
- 1.2 – Visual Facilitating for users:
The foundation course for those with basic knowledge

Level 2 – the two-day advanced course:

- Visually presenting and explaining: Using the flipchart method live, presenting complex contents or emotionally-loaded topics
- Graphic Recording: Real-time drawing of dialogs – with visual notes and large format road maps
- Visual Storytelling: Translating abstract contents into posters with food for thought or process comics. – The training for the visual dictionary bikablo emotions!

World Café

The World Café facilitation method enables effective communication, whilst in an enjoyable atmosphere. When smaller groups are created, this method allows for discovery of important and more in-depth questions. All participants exchange their ideas on the World Café tables, and then as the group moves around all the tables an opportunity for concise discussions begins. The World Café method allows you to create effective face-to-face workshops.

2 3 World Café Tablecloth

The World Café Tablecloth is available in rectangular and round shapes. The paper tablecloth is printed only on one side with black and grey ink. So you have the chance to use your own color choice if you like. For example with your CI-Color; it works perfectly with the Neuland BigOnes® (see pages 12-13).

Additional Information:

black/grey print on quality pinboard paper rectangular: 27.6 x 55 inches round: diameter 27.6 inches

Our recommendation for World Café with 80 participants:

- 20 World Café-table clothes (4 people/table - round or rectangular)
- 20 World Café Etiquette Cards
- 1 Learning Map No. 2 World Café (see page 49)
- 40 N°One WorkshopMarker black (2 marker/table)
- 40 N°One WorkshopMarker assorted colors (2 colors/table)

1 Learning Map No. 1
Open Space Technology

With just a few words and accurate illustrations the Open Space Learning Map will help you become confident in this popular worldwide method. The purpose of the Open Space method is to help create a culture of dialogue by customizing the method specifically for your organizational requirements.

2 Learning Map No. 2
World Café

The World Café method endeavors to create an environment for real encounters and discussions between participants at workshops and conferences. With the use of our learning map you can illustrate your point by simply using a few words while referring to the pictures to begin laying the foundation to support solid communication.

3 Learning Map No. 3
Appreciative Inquiry (AI)

Appreciative Inquiry is a successful alternative to regular problem solving strategies. The goal of this method is to pinpoint that which is already working for your group or organization and then develop further improvement strategies based on current successes. Appreciative Inquiry will help discover greater organizational potential and guide complex development processes.

1 Learning Map No. 4 Visual Facilitating

Visual Facilitating & Graphic Recording – in other words, making communication within groups easier through the use of graphics, text and images. Discover a young occupational image and use visualization for your own work. Whether in meetings, workshops, training courses, conferences, lessons or lectures. The special thing about this learning map is that it gets straight to the point in any situation. With few words and relevant images, you can create, link and internalize content quickly and efficiently. Learning Map No. 4 is new to the Neuland range and makes sure you get to grips with the subject in a flash!

2 Learning Map No. 5 Storytelling

This learning map contains all you need to know to use an effective tool for management and facilitators – the art of telling stories. Storytelling is an excellent way to explain concepts, awaken enthusiasm for new ideas and help others to embrace challenges and change. You can use stories to support and enhance visions, values and cultural development. Or use them to introduce concepts and procedures. The special thing about this learning map is that it gets straight to the point in any situation. With few words and relevant images, you can create, link and internalize content quickly and efficiently

The Kommunikationslotsens' Facilitator Curriculum

A Facilitator helps groups and organizations to work more effectively by allowing them to jointly solve their own problems and develop joint strategies. »Change«, Development and new learning cannot be managed: with a bit of luck they can be accompanied. This is why we talk about Facilitating Change. The word »Facilitating« stands for »simplifying, lightness, possibility«. A leadership philosophy that does without directive elements to the benefit of participation, self-direction, and organizational or group learning.

- Less Powerpoint and more a culture of participation
- More dialog and self-organization
- using one's own potential rather than clever external consultancy
- knowledge through experience, a variety of methods, and empathy

2 MethodsBox

At the core of our new CoachingBag are the coaching methods which are all encapsulated in the professional MethodsBox.

The 15 most used coaching methods are organized and sorted with their corresponding methodology cards. Coach with confidence as each method is clearly explained step-by-step in a 17-page booklet, including terminology, typologies, procedures and many more essential coaching tips. All methods come with target settings and suggestions for additional tools that may be helpful.

1 Visual Coaching Guides

Visual Coaching Guides were created by an international team of coaches, strategists, facilitators and artists to support and accelerate the transition between who and what you are today, and who and what you want to be tomorrow. The team believes that life's journey includes the professional development of skills, knowledge and capabilities as well as the use of experience, insight and imagination. The Visual Coaching Guides bring our strengths to light and allow the individual to create the professional life we want to lead through using visual images provided or created on your own.

2 The Coaching Game

The Coaching Game is a powerful tool used to generate clear, quality communication between people through 65 thought provoking pictures. This game aims to have its participants take chances by daring them to say things they normally wouldn't say in the safe confines of a game. The Coaching Game has no winners or losers, but rather it helps stimulate thinking, discussion, and cooperation. It can be used in varying ways and adapted depending on your group type.

This game has been internationally recognized and acclaimed since its launch back in April 2007.

Included

65 Coaching Cards, a Coaching Book with 165 pages of colorful illustration, a square fabric with print to lay the cards on, a pad with coaching cards.

Art Association Cards: Relationships

by Bärbel Stoeckermann

The Art Association Cards were intended to assist relational issues where the participants are engaged in some type of relationship.

Psychotherapists, consultants, and psychosocial occupational groups use them as conversation starters particularly in one-on-one or group conversations. This "impulse method" serves to make a person clarify a subject to oneself by inspiring questions such as: Who am I, where do I want to get to?

Every person knows what makes them tick, but he's not always aware of it; as the truth often times lies hidden under the surface. The cards can be a great support in this process of self-discovery. The picture cards therefore provide a starting point to begin the conversation in this process.

The cards act as an emotional pacemaker, to help gain entrance to the unconsciousness.

When presenting different pictures to different people; it can elicit varying reactions, feelings, valuations, thoughts and new self-imagery. The cards are not defined to target a specific result; rather the intention is to encourage self-exploration. "The way is the destination" – Confucius.

Function:

- "icebreaker" for getting to know each other
- Self-reflection, status
- Starting and completing a training: perspectives, aims and goals

Contents:

- 1 Set: 50 cards (50 various relation motives), size: W 5.8 x 8.3 inches,

Let it roll! Enjoy the flexibility of a mobile pinboard with this great add-on accessory. The black swivel casters easily attach to the legs and are lockable.

How simple is that to get your foldable pinboard into its bag for safe and easy transportation.

Place the bag over the pinboard whilst still on the ground, turn it around and retract the legs and pull the flap cover over which is held in place with Velcro®

1 UniversalBag for transportable boards

Take your foldable pinboards around in comfort and style. Durability was our top priority when designing our functional carrying bag to ensure the safety of its contents. The additional padding and reinforced corners and base provide extra protection, along with the internal Velcro® fasteners; making this a must-have item for every pinboard or flipchart on the move.

When you're using the Universal Bag to carry your flipchart, you have the option to add a Combi Quiver inside to create a space for your flipchart paper.

General Terms and Conditions

of the Neuland GmbH & Co. KG (status: 10/2012)

§ 1 Scope of Applicability

(1) These General Terms and Conditions (GTC) constitute a component part of the contract and apply to all and, accordingly, also to future transactions between Neuland GmbH & Co. KG and the customer entered into by phone, fax, or letter on the basis of the current order catalogue. They will be accepted by the client to their full extent in the version valid at the time the contract is closed.

(2) The Neuland GmbH & Co. KG hereby dissents to deviating, contradictory or supplemental General Terms and Conditions, which will also not be contract documents.

§ 2 General Matters

(1) With its order catalogue, Neuland GmbH & Co. KG offers products for holding seminars, training sessions, and workshops.

(2) For the purposes of the GTC presented here, customers are businesses.

(3) Businesses are, in particular, natural or legal persons or partnerships vested with legal rights, who, upon closing the legal transaction, act by practicing their commercial or independent professional occupation.

§ 3 Conclusion of the Contract

Your contract partner is:

Neuland GmbH & Co. KG, Am Kreuzacker 7, 36124 Eichenzell/Germany
Phone: +49 (0) 6659 88-0, Fax: +49 (0) 06659 88-188, E-Mail: info@neuland.com

Sales & Customer Support – North America

Phone: 1-888-713-2333 (North America), 1-780-485-8188 (International)
Fax: 1-888-713-2555 (North America), 1-780-485-8180 (International)
E-mail: sales@neuland.biz

If the order qualifies as an offer pursuant to Section 145 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, BGB), we are entitled to accept same within two weeks.

§ 4 Delivery and Passing of Risk

(1) Delivery is made to the address you indicated when placing the order.

(2) Delivery dates or delivery deadlines are binding only if same have been confirmed by us in writing. We are also not responsible for delays in delivery due to acts of God and due to events that make delivery considerably difficult or impossible not only temporarily, even for agreed upon periods and deadlines. You authorize us to postpone the delivery for an amount of time equal to the duration of the obstacle plus an appropriate start-up time, or to withdraw from the contract entirely or in part because of the portion not yet fulfilled. To the extent that we are responsible for non-compliance with binding, confirmed periods and deadlines, or to the extent that we find ourselves in delay, our liability is limited to a half percent of the invoice value (without VAT) for each full week of delay for the relevant delivery, at most, however, 5% of the invoice value of the relevant delivery. Further demands are excluded, unless the delay is due to gross negligence on our part.

(3) The risk passes to the buyer as soon as the delivery is given to the person completing the transport. If the shipment is deferred at the request of the customer, the risk passes to the customer upon notification of their readiness for shipment.

§ 5 Prices and Shipping Costs

(1) The prices indicated in your catalogue are net prices not including the legal VAT.

(2) The shipping costs, in other words, the amount and calculation of the shipping costs, can be found on www.neuland.com; under „Shipping“ for flat rates to North American customers, and calculated rates for all other customers based on dimensions and location.

(3) According to the 2010 incoterms; we offer the following shipping terms: DAP (Delivered at Place), Free Domicile, & Customs Cleared. However, please note duty and taxes if applicable are not included.

§ 6 Order Discrepancies

We reserve the right to minor discrepancies in regards to colour, material strength and execution. Our information about the object of delivery and service are descriptions and/or designations and not guaranteed characteristics. Improvements caused by technological advances are reserved.

§ 7 Payment Methods

All invoices must be paid in full with a credit card (Visa, MasterCard, and American Express) or by PayPal. However, for customers who meet our requirements to be invoiced; they will be given net 30 days from the invoice date to pay either by wire transfer or by check.

§ 8 Reservation of Proprietary Rights

The item remains our property until the buyer has paid all outstanding accounts, even bills arising in the future from the business connection, in particular also any eventual current account balance resulting from the quarterly closing deadline, or until the notes or checks given in payment have been cashed. The buyer is allowed to use an item reserved under our proprietary rights only in regular business transaction, in particular such goods can neither be pawned nor used as collateral. In the event of a violation of obligation on the part of the buyer, in particular in case of delayed payment, the seller is entitled, even without setting a deadline, to demand the surrender of the object of delivery and/or to withdraw from the contract; the buyer is obligated to surrender the item. The demand for surrender is not subject to a declaration of withdrawal on the part of the seller, unless it is expressly so declared. If the item is sold or otherwise given to third parties, then the demands and claims arising for the buyer to the third parties have hereby already been ceded in advance to us. The supplier can disclose the cession, if payment is not made, despite reminders that comply with the reminder period of 10 days. If the buyer himself sells the item whose proprietary rights are reserved, then he hereby retains the proprietary rights for us. If the item supplied by us is mixed or connected to other objects, and the buyer cedes his proprietary or co-proprietary rights to the mixed inventory or new objects and keeps them for us with due diligence. The buyer is obligated to announce immediately to the supplier garnishments of items whose proprietary rights are reserved or of ceded demands and claims. The seller bears the costs of an intervention and must present it at the request of the supplier. The outstanding accounts of our customer against his debtor, ceded to us in advance on the part of our customer through the expanded and extended reservation of proprietary rights, are released to us in the amounts of the outstanding account that exceed 110% of the nominal value of the outstanding account against our customer.

§ 9 Liability for Defects

Where a transaction within the meaning of Sections 343 and 344 of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch, HGB) is involved, the customer must have properly fulfilled its obligations under Section 377 HGB to inspect and object in order to be able to lodge claims for defects.

The statute of limitations for claims and rights due to defects of the deliveries/services – regardless of the legal reason – is 1 year. This does not, however, apply in all cases of the § 438 Sec. 1 No. 1 of the German Civil Code (BGB), § 438 Sec. 1 No. 2 BGB, § 479 Sec. 1 BGB and § 634 a Sec. 1 No. 2 BGB. The statute of limitations begins, for all claims, with delivery, for services, with receipt. Provided nothing else is determined, the legal decisions about the start of the statute of limitations, the expiration of the statute of limitations, the suspension of the statute of limitations and the restart of periods remain unaffected.

§ 10 Exchange of goods

(1) Irrespective of the buyer's statutory rights, goods may be exchanged or returned only on a case-by-case basis pursuant to special agreement, which must be made prior to returning the goods.

(2) The right to exchange or return is generally precluded if the goods are no longer in their original packaging or if they constitute a one-off or special production.

(3) The costs for shipping returned goods and reshipping replacement goods are solely for the account of the buyer. Goods that reach us with freight due are not required to be accepted by us.

§ 11 Limitations on Liability

We are liable pursuant to statutory provisions to the extent that the customer asserts claims for damages that are based on intentional acts or gross negligence, including intentional acts or gross negligence on the part of our representatives or persons used to perform an obligation (Erfüllungshelfen). Unless we are accused of intentional breach of contract, liability for damages is limited to those that are foreseeable and typically incurred. The foregoing also applies to compensation for damages instead of performance. We are liable pursuant to statutory provisions to the extent that we culpably breach a material contractual duty; in this case as well, however, liability for damages is limited to those that are foreseeable and typically incurred. Liability for culpable injury to life, body, or health remains unaffected; this applies also to strict liability under the German Product Liability Act (Produkthaftungsgesetz). Unless provided otherwise in the foregoing, liability is excluded.

§ 12 Privacy Protection

The Neuland GmbH & Co. KG takes the protection of your personal information very seriously and strictly complies with the regulations of the privacy protection laws, in particular the German Data Protection Act (BDSG).

Personal information is only collected on our internet shop www.neuland.com to the extent necessary for technical purposes. In no case will the information collected from you be sold or given to third parties for other reasons.

We use personal information for processing orders, delivery of goods as well as for processing payments. We never give your personal information to third parties who do not work with us directly for the purposes of processing your order.

As the customer, you naturally have the right to be informed as well as a right to correct, block and delete the saved information. The customer can delete his information at any time. He also has the right to demand information about the status of his saved information at the e-mail address: info@neuland.com or by phone at +49 (0) 6659 88-0.

To the extent that deletion contradicts legal or contractual obligations to store data, the data will be blocked.

Your trust is important to us. We would therefore like to give you information about the processing of your personal information at any time. Should you have any questions that were unable to be answered by this data protection disclosure, or should you at any point desire more detailed information, please feel free to contact us at any time by phone at +49 (0) 6659 88-0, by email to info@neuland.com, or by letter to Neuland GmbH & Co. KG, Am Kreuzacker 7, 36124 Eichenzell / Germany.

§ 13 Severability Clause

Should one of these provisions be ineffective or become ineffective due to legal changes, the remaining provisions continue to be valid without limitation.

§ 14 Final Provisions

(1) Individual oral contract agreements only become contract documents or part of the contract through written confirmation by the Neuland GmbH & Co. KG.

(2) The law of the Federal Republic of Germany applies. The provisions of the UN CISG do not apply.

(3) Unless provided otherwise in the order confirmation, the place of performance is our registered place of business.

(4) If the customer is a merchant, legal person of public law or of public legal special assets, the place of jurisdiction for all disputes from this contract is Fulda, provided an exclusive court of jurisdiction is not given.

(5) The prices listed remain in effect until publication of the next catalogue.
